

Mounting Methods Series: Chameleons

Extending from the Wall

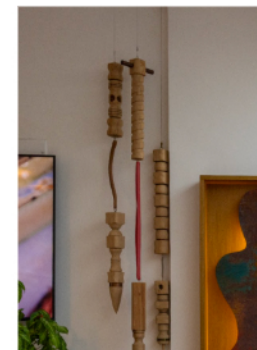

Mounted on a Wall
Bracket

Anchored Directly
into the Ground

Mounted on a Movable
Wooden Base

Suspended from the Ceiling with Steel
Cable, Nylon Line, or a Screw

Displayed on a Table
Stand with an Acrylic
Base and Mirror

Horizon, the artwork is displayed in a horizontal arrangement, suggesting expansion, infinity, and balance.

Vertical, the elements rise upward, evoking growth, strength, and the connection between earth and sky.

Pendulum, the suspended sculptures gently move, evoking time, rhythm, oscillation, and transformation.

Arrows, volumes project outward from the wall in different directions, as if breaking through the surface, creating tension, a sense of speed, and forward momentum into space.